

British Values at Hunton & Arrathorne School

Be Kind – Be Safe – Be Driven

We are happy and healthy
We are change makers
We are inquisitive

We are creators
We are risk-takers
We are lifelong readers

Pupil Leadership Team elections school behaviour policy. *School council elections into other roles. *Voting for Team Treats at the end of the term. *Rule of Law Individual Liberty Individual Liberty *Through our PSHCE curriculum pupils are encouraged to make the right choices. *Through our PSHCE curriculum pupils are encouraged to make the right choices. *Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day. *Pupils are encouraged to be Behaviour Blueprint to *Through our PSHCE curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open minded through our core for charity or support to the curriculum pupils are encouraged to be for charity or support to the curriculum pupils are encouraged to be the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open minded through our core for charity or support to the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open minded through our core for charity or support to the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open minded through our core to the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open minded through our core tolerance "Through the 'We a makers' strand of the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open makers' strand of the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers" and open makers' strand of the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers" and open makers' strand of the curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance "Pupils are encouraged to b	m) The change of
*Pupil Leadership Team elections *Elections for other roles and responsibilities in school. *Voting for Team Treats at *Everyone follows the school behaviour policy. *Through our PSHCE curriculum pupils are encouraged to make the right choices. *Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day. *Through our PSHCE / RE curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance curriculum, pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open *Through our PSHCE / RE curriculum promote mutual respect and tolerance curriculum, pupils are encouraged to make the right choices. *Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day.	re change e e a g money ting elections *Elections for other roles and responsibilities in school. *Voting for Team Treats at *School behaviour policy. *School council elections / elections into other roles. *Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day. pupils are encouraged to make tolerance *Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open difference — by raising the right choices. *Anti-bullying week and tolerance tolerance *Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open difference — by raising the right choices.	e e a g money ting
*Elections for other roles and responsibilities in school. *Voting for Team Treats at *School council elections / elections into other roles. *Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day. *Curriculum, pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open difference – by raising the right choices. *Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open difference – by raising the right choices.	e a g money ting responsibilities in school. *Voting for Team Treats at *Staff follow the *Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day. *Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open difference – by raising the change-m	a g money ting
*Voting for Team Treats at *Staff follow the Internet Safety Day. change-makers and open difference – by raisir	g money ting
	ting the and of the term. Pohaviour Pluantint to "Pupils are encouraged to be minded through our core for charity or support the end of the term. Behaviour blueprint to Fupils are encouraged to be infinited infought our core for chartry or support	ng *Pupils are consulted on ensure behaviour is change makers by supporting value and curriculum links. events. The Wellbein school issues through the PLT consistent across school. charity events. *Our book collection Warriors group have	adapted
*Assemblies and PSHCE work *Visits from external *Child initiated learning in Rec / celebrates diversity and allows breaktimes and are particular to the control of	lanning a on elections and in class agencies – police, fire Y1. children to experience a broad Colour Run in 2022	to elections service etc. *Child initiated breaktimes with and balanced range of celebrate diversity.
*Pupil voice impacts whole *Sports tournaments a choice of activities. families, cultures and races. school decisions (wellbeing benches / awareness of curriculum. responsibility. *Celebrating a range of bullying) *Children are recognised *Children encouraged to follow festivals.
*Visit from the Chancellor of for following rules. extra curricular interests in and *Discussions around prejudice.
the Exchequer. *All staff have clear out of school, and these are *Visits to places of worship.
*Pupil questionnaires. expectations. celebrated. *Assemblies within a theme of *Assemblies linked to rules *Residential activities. tolerance. and laws. *Pupil Leadership Team
*Vision and values
*School behaviour policy.

