

British Values at Hunton & Arrathorne CP School

We are happy and healthy
 We are change-makers
 We are risk-takers
 We are lifelong readers
 We are happy and healthy
 We are inquisitive

Democracy	Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Tolerance & Mutual Respect	Additional and extra (beyond the curriculum)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Pupil Leadership Team elections. -Elections of other roles and responsibilities within school -Voting for 'Team Treats' and 'Termly Charities' at the end of term. -Pupils are consulted on school issues through the Pupil Leadership Team and pupil voice questionnaires. -Assemblies and PSHE work on national elections. -Pupil voice impacts whole school decisions (new benches purchased by Wellbeing Warriors / bullying awareness) -Visit from the Prime Minister and opportunity to visit 10 Downing Street -Visit to the Houses of Parliament and workshop through Parliament Education. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Bi-annual visit to London – including key sites such as New Scotland Yard and the Houses of Parliament. -Everyone follows the school behaviour policy -Staff follow the Behaviour Blueprint to ensure behaviour is consistent across school. -Visit from external agencies – police, fire service etc. -Sports tournaments where children follow rules. -E-Safety built into PSHE and Computing curriculum. -Children are recognised for following the 'Golden Rules'. -All staff have clear expectations. -Assemblies linked to rules and laws. -Upper KS2 pupils visit 'Crucial Crew' social safety workshops annually. -Children are familiar of our 'E-Safety SMART Rules'. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -'No Outsiders' is pivotal to our PSHE approach. -Through our PSHE curriculum pupils are encouraged to make the right choices. -Anti-bullying week and Internet Safety Day celebrations. -Pupils encouraged to be change-makers by supporting local, national and international charities. -Global citizenship links throughout the curriculum – R.E, Geography etc. -Children taught about personal responsibility. -Children encouraged to follow interests through extra-curricular programme. -Children encouraged to develop through planned opportunities to be pupil leaders. -Out of school interests celebrated through Celebration Assembly. -Residential opportunities. -'Hunton Heroes' work on remembrance and support of service pupils. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -'No Outsiders' is pivotal to our approach and encourages empathetic awareness of protected characteristics. -Pupils are encouraged to be change-makers and open minded through our core values and curriculum links -PSHE and RSE curriculum promotes mutual respect and tolerance. -Book collection celebrates diversity through literature. -Remembrance Day and Service of Remembrance visits. -Close links with the local church. -Celebrating a range of festivals. -Discussions around prejudice -Visits to places of worship – including virtual Mandir visit and Mosque visits. -Wellbeing Warriors work -Vision and values. -School behaviour policy. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Bi-annual residential visit to London. -Change-Makers strand -Wellbeing Warriors work.